Items of Note:

On January 1 at 12:07 am, police responded to Main St. and Division St for a Hit and Run Traffic Accident. Through the investigation officers subsequently identified the driver of the hit and run vehicle. The driver was cited for Hit and Run, Reckless Driving and Obstructing Police.

On January 1 at 2:24 am, police observed a vehicle at Main St and Division St commit several traffic violations. The vehicle was stopped and the driver was noted to have an odor of alcohol on her breath. Field sobriety tests were conducted and the driver was taken into custody for Operation of a Motor Vehicle While Intoxicated. The driver submitted to a breath test and a .15 BAC was recorded.

On January 1 at 3:40 pm, police were dispatched to 2700 block of Main St in the Village of East Troy to investigate a suspicious activity report. The caller who was not identified stated a vehicle with 3 occupants was parked outside of lot 211 and attempting to get inside. This address had recently been the venue for a search warrant executed by the Wauwatosa PD. Police learned one of the subjects was the owner of the property and the daughter of the subject in custody of the Wauwatosa Police. All subjects were identified and released.

On January 2 at 9:16 pm, police responded to Fremont St. for a juvenile threatening suicide. The juvenile had left the residence wearing only pajamas and was threatening to walk into traffic on Hwy 20. Police were able to locate the subject and she was transported to Lakeland Medical Center.

On January 5 at 2:20 pm, police responded to the 2000 block of Main St. for a domestic disturbance. On arrival officers met with the two subjects and learned that no physical contact or battery had taken place. In the course of investigating the incident officers observed Cannabis and drug paraphenilla in plain view. One of the subjects admitted ownership of the drugs. The subject was taken into custody and a check conducted revealed the subject was on parole. The subject was transferred to the Walworth County Jail following P&P placing a hold on the subject.

On January 18 at 5:15 pm, police responded to an address on Edwards St. for a possible burglary. On arrival officers discovered the residence to be empty and listed for sale. On entering the residence damage to all parts of the residence was observed and the owner advised he had the residence cleaned and prepared for sale. Subsequent investigation revealed the residence was being used by several adults and juveniles as a party house and for sleeping. The investigation revealed several crimes had been committed including Sexual Assault, Criminal Damage to Property and Burglary. Subjects have been taken into custody and charged.
